About VNIT

Established in 1960, Visvesvaraya National Institute of Technology is one of the most reputed engineering institutes from all over the country. According to a recent survey from Times of India, VNIT was ranked 1st among all NIT's and 11th among all the engineering colleges in the country. With a sprawling 214-acre campus in the heart of Central India, the institute has seen many of the country's esteemed corporate barons and academicians pass through its halls. In recent years, VNIT has seen visits by personalities like Hon'ble President of India, Dr. Pranab Mukherjee, Late Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam, Nitin Gadkari and Smriti Irani on different occasions. The institute offers undergraduate and postgraduate courses across a variety of disciplines to its pan-Indian student community of around 4000, which, selected through JEE, represents the cream of the country's engineering talent.

About AaroHi

Come winter, the gates to Central India's Largest Cultural Festival are opened, ushering in an unprecedented medley of excitement and zeal. The Cultural Extravaganza, studded with electrifying and exhilarating events and competitions, witnesses a whooping footfall of over 25,000 and a participation of around 5000 students in our campus. Conceptualized way back in 1988, AaroHi has come a long way in all realms both qualitatively and quantitatively and has firmly ensconced itself as the centrepiece of the cultural spectrum of the region. AaroHi is a Non-profit Organisation completely organised and co-ordinated by willingness and true spirits of a group of VNITian's when their individual strengths and skills are combined with teamwork, in the pursuit of a common cause, in order to produce meaningful results for the organisation. AaroHi truly has become one of the most awaited festivals in India. This year, we will be celebrating the 28th edition of AaroHi at VNIT, Nagpur.
